

DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Discrimination Complaint Procedure

As required by section 46a-68-46 of the Affirmative Action Regulations, this complaint procedure addresses complaints alleging discrimination, including but not limited to harassment, based upon any legally protected class, including race, color, religious creed, age, sex, gender identity or expression, marital status, national origin, ancestry, present or past history of mental disability, intellectual disability, learning disability or physical disability, including, but not limited to blindness; genetic information, and criminal record history. Retaliation complaints are also covered under the DAS discrimination complaint procedure. Additionally, any member of the public alleging discrimination in the provision of services, activities, programs or benefits of the Department of Administrative Services related to a qualifying disability may use the DAS Discrimination Complaint Procedure.

The DAS Discrimination Complaint Procedure will be distributed annually to all employees and will be posted on both the agency's intranet and internet website. All employees shall also be notified of the right to file with state enforcement agency Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities (CCHRO) and that such complaints shall be filed with the CCHRO within 180 days of the alleged discriminatory treatment. Each new employee upon appointment shall receive and acknowledge a copy of the DAS Discrimination Complaint Procedure.

*Any person requiring a copy of this procedure in an alternative format should contact Alicia Nunez, Equal Employment Opportunity Manager, via phone at (860) 713-5317 or email at alicia.nunez@ct.gov.

All employees are expected to cooperate fully with all administrative complaint investigations and any actions taken by DAS as a result of such investigations.

Counseling

DAS is committed to providing a work environment in which all people are treated with respect and dignity. Accordingly, the Equal Employment Opportunity Manager (Alicia Nuñez) and staff of the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit are available to counsel employees with questions or concerns about DAS's anti-discrimination policies. Any individual requesting counseling will meet with the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit staff in a private area. Issues discussed during such counseling sessions will be kept as confidential as possible, consistent with DAS's legal obligations.

DAS Discrimination Complaint Procedure

During such counseling sessions, the participants will be advised of their rights under state and federal anti-discrimination laws and the right to file directly with the CCHRO or other appropriate enforcement agencies to ensure that legal options for filing with these agencies are not foreclosed. Participants will be provided with applicable DAS policies and will be given a copy of the DAS Discrimination Complaint Procedure.

* Alicia Nuñez may be contacted at (860) 713-5317 and is located on the 5th floor of the State Office Building at 165 Capitol Avenue, Hartford.

Complaints may be made verbally or in writing to the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit or the DAS Human Resources Division. The DAS Human Resources Division shall promptly forward any complaint alleging discrimination or retaliation to the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit for investigation. Accommodations to the filing process will be made available for persons with disabilities upon request.  - 3) A member of the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit shall try to facilitate conciliation between the complainant and the respondent where there is an indication that both parties are willing to work together towards a resolution.
 - 4) If no conciliatory agreement is possible, the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit shall continue with the investigatory process, keeping the Commissioner and Director of the business center fully informed of its progress.
 - 5) The Equal Employment Opportunity Unit shall investigate all complaints and prepare a summary of the findings for administrative review. The investigative process shall not exceed ninety (90) days.

- 6) The Equal Employment Opportunity Unit will notify the complainant, respondent and the parties listed above of the final determination in writing.
- 7) All complainants retain the right to pursue a remedy through other administrative, collective bargaining, and/or legal channels or with appropriate enforcement agencies.
- 8) If the investigation of the complaint indicates a policy violation occurred, the findings will be reviewed with the Commissioner (or designee), who will determine appropriate disciplinary action.
- 9) The Equal Opportunity Unit shall maintain all records of affirmative action complaints, investigations, outcomes, and their disposition. Records so retained shall be confidential, except where disclosure is required by law. These records are subject to examination by the Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities.
