- Record of excellence in teaching at the university/college level as the instructor of record.

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience in teaching music history (full sequence).
- Qualified in both performance and studio teaching (preference given to piano).

The University: CCSU is one of four universities in the Connecticut State Colleges & Universities system. Excellent professors and a wide array of academic programs prepare students for success in whatever field they choose. CCSU's motto is more than a slogan; it articulates the University's commitment to students: "Start with a dream. Finish with a future." CCSU serves approximately 12,200 students - 9,500 undergraduates, and 2,700 graduates. CCSU is richly diverse: more than 30 percent of students are of traditional minority heritage. Visit our web site at <http://www.ccsu.edu/>.

The Community: CCSU is located in New Britain, a city of some 70,000, within a 10-minute drive to the state capital in Hartford. New Britain is home to the nationally recognized New Britain Museum of American Art and offers a range of cultural opportunities, including the New Britain Symphony Orchestra, two theatres, and an extensive park system. The University is approximately two hours (by car) from both Boston and New York City.
