The Connecticut State Department of Education (CSDE) is currently recruiting for an Education Staff Assistant in the Academic Office.

GENERAL STATEMENT OF DUTIES:

The Director of Reading Initiatives leads the Connecticut State Department of Education's efforts to improve literacy performance for students across the state and close the reading achievement gap. The Director of Reading Initiatives is responsible for overseeing implementation of the state's PreK-3 reading plan and all statewide K-12 reading/ literacy initiatives.

EXAMPLE OF DUTIES:

- Lead the state's efforts to ensure that all students are proficient readers by third grade, meet or exceed state standards in literacy, and are prepared for the literacy demands of future schooling, college, and career;
- Facilitate communication, involvement, and collaboration among external stakeholders (e.g., local education agencies, state literacy organizations, parent and community groups, higher education, other state agencies) to find common ground among literacy philosophies, models, and instructional approaches to develop a comprehensive reading model that benefits the varied needs of early readers.
- Serve as a statewide leader and advance a statewide vision for effective PreK-3 literacy supports that result in high reading achievement for all students;
- Support district and school success in implementation of the state reading plan. Oversee the development, approval, and implementation of K-12 district reading plans
- Lead the state's efforts to develop and provide professional development to districts, schools, and teachers based on scientifically based reading research to support teacher knowledge, professional learning, and continuous improvement;

- Communicate with all internal stakeholders to ensure the alignment and coordination of state efforts and initiatives to improve literacy;
- Perform other duties related to literacy as assigned by the Chief Academic Officer.

Qualifications:

- Successful experience at the school or district level, with 5+ years in leadership roles;
- Demonstrated knowledge of scientifically-based reading research, and research-based practices related to literacy development;
- Demonstrated ability to improve literacy achievement for all students within school and district settings;
- Successful school or district administrative experience leading a change effort, including proven planning, project management, implementation skills and a sense of urgency for improving reading and closing Connecticut’s achievement gap;
- Effective oral and written communication skills, as well as negotiation and conflict resolution skills.

Knowledge, Skill and Ability:

- Knowledge of the importance of systematic instruction in all reading skills including: phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, comprehension, oral language and written expression strategies;
- Knowledge of the factors contributing to achievement gaps and the targeted strategies for closing achievement gaps across all disaggregated student groups (e.g., MTSS, RTI, SRBI), and a proven ability to apply research-based strategies that lead to improved achievement;
- Knowledge of state and national literacy standards;
- Knowledge of the literacy assessment landscape, including assessments for screening, progress monitoring, formative assessment practice, and summative assessment;
- Knowledge of the achievement gap and how race and class play into diminished classroom expectations;
- Knowledge of family engagement models that are inclusive and promote educator understanding of culture, race and class in building effective partnerships;
- Knowledge of reading and literacy development, assessment, and instruction for English learners and for students with disabilities grounded in the most current research;
- Familiarity with literacy legislation and other Connecticut reform initiatives (e.g., CT Core Standards and statewide assessments, Alliance Districts, Commissioner’s Network Schools, etc.);

Experience and Training:

Demonstrated competence to perform the duties and responsibilities of the position as determined by the State Board of Education.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT:

Incumbents in this class may be required to travel.

PREFERRED EXPERIENCE AND TRAINING:

Master’s degree and certification in reading.
