Instructions for Depositing Fringe Benefit Recoveries

In certain situations, state agencies bill another state agency, municipality or private firm for services provided by an employee. The bill can include both salary and fringe benefit costs to be reimbursed. The following instructions relate to the treatment of the fringe benefit portion of the payment or recovery.

Deposits to Fund 34005 – The Fringe Benefit Recovery Fund.

When agencies bill another entity to recover fringe benefit costs, the payments should be deposited or applied to the following coding:

Fund: 34005
SID: 40001
Account: 44338
Budget Reference: Current Fiscal Year

In addition, the agency should use its own Department ID, Program and Project values.

Alerting OSC of the deposit using the CO-826 form. Once a fringe benefit recovery payment is deposited or applied to Fund 34005, the agency should alert the Office of the State Comptroller (OSC) using a CO-826 Reimbursable Cost Recovery form. This allows OSC to credit the recovery to the proper central fringe benefit appropriations.

As shown on a sample CO-826 form in Excel, (available at http://www.core-ct.state.ct.us/user/finjobaids/xls/smpl\_co826.xls), agencies should indicate the coding used to make the fringe benefit recovery deposit into Fund 34005. The dollar amount should be listed as a negative number.

Agencies should also list the separate fringe benefit account amounts that make up the total deposit. These amounts should be listed as positive numbers. The total of the CO-826 form should sum to zero. Examples of separate fringe benefit accounts could include a combination of the following benefits and the applicable retirement plan:

50410 – Group Life Insurance
50420 – Medical Insurance
50430 – Unemployment Compensation
50441 – FICA
50442 – Medicare
50471 – SERS Retirement
50472 – Alternative Retirement
50473 – Teachers’ Retirement
50474 – Judges Retirement

Signed CO-826 forms and any related documentation should be faxed to the OSC Cost Unit at (860) 702-3699 or mailed to:

Office of the State Comptroller
Cost Reporting Unit
55 Elm Street, Room 109
Hartford, CT 06106
