

State of Connecticut
Department of Administrative Services
11 Shuttle Road, Farmington

The 11 Shuttle Road Property is a three story building occupied by the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner. The property is approximately 30,000 sq. ft. on 2.1 acres.

The building was constructed in 1986 by the Connecticut Department of Public Works to replace the older “Jamesway Hut” style buildings previously located on John Dempsey Drive. The location of the building provides easy access for employees and visitors due to its location within the U-Conn Health Campus. Access is nearby for both I-84 and State Route 9.
