

Contractor Prequalification Program Required Documentation

The following is a list of documentation that must be forwarded with your application for the Contractor Prequalification Program. Your application will not be considered complete until all required documentation has been received by DAS. Unsolicited information received from the applicant will not be considered, returned or retained.

Required documents, excluding the fee check, must be uploaded using the Document Upload function in the online application.

Note: DAS reserves the right to request additional or supporting documentation.

- Company Financial Statement: for the most current fiscal year. This statement must be prepared by a licensed Certified Public Accountant and conform to generally accepted accounting principles. The statement must include information concerning your company's current assets, current liability, total assets and total liability.

Under Conn. Gen. Stat. § 4a-100(d), private companies seeking to become prequalified by the Department of Administrative Services (DAS) are required to submit, among other data, company financial information. If a private company takes reasonable measures to maintain the secrecy of this information, such as stamping the specific data "CONFIDENTIAL," DAS views this information as private, not subject to public disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act. Specifically, in such a situation, DAS will treat the information as exempt from disclosure as a "trade secret" under Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-210(b)(5)(A).

Company Financial Statement EXCEPTION Effective October 1, 2011: if the applicant has been accepted into the bonding program of a certified community development financial institution, the applicant need only provide the financial documents required by such institution for the applicant to qualify for such program.

"Certified community development financial institution" means a community development bank, credit union or loan or venture capital fund that provides financial products and services in economically distressed markets and that is certified by the Certified Development Financial Institution Fund of the United States Department of the Treasury.

- Letter from Bonding Company: (on bonding company's letterhead) indicating date of letter, your company's name, company address, company's aggregate work capacity (the maximum amount of work your company is capable of undertaking for any and all projects), single limit (the estimated cost of a single project that your company is capable of undertaking), and contact information for bonding company's representative. Prequalification is contingent upon the bonding company having at least an "A-" (A-minus) rating by the A.M. Best Company.

- Status Letter (commonly known as Letter of Good Standing) from the State of Connecticut Department of Revenue Services (DRS): To obtain this letter, you must submit your request to the State of Connecticut's Department of Revenue Services, 25 Sigourney Street, Hartford, CT 06106, ATTN: Compliance Resolution. Your request must be submitted on your company's letterhead indicating the purpose of the request (the Contractor Prequalification Program), Connecticut Tax Identification Number, company name, company physical address, address where the letter must be sent (to the State of Connecticut Department of Administrative Services, Contractor Prequalification Unit, 450 Columbus Boulevard, Suite 1202, Hartford, CT 06103, and the signature of one of your company's officials. Note: For the purpose of prequalification, the DRS status letter must indicate no current outstanding tax liability to the State of Connecticut.
